

2016 Market Days of South Walton

April 30, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

South Walton High School, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Antique & Vintage Car Show Registration

Spring of 2016 will see another inaugural event take place on the beaches of South Walton, in March, with set-up at South Walton High School. What has already been tagged as the spring "happening," Hilltop Production Events, Kathleen's Cottage, H & M Event Rentals and South Walton High School, will be hosting an event that will combine the attributes of the West Indies Markets and the fine art shows of Coconut Grove, with the markets of New York, the World's Longest Yard Sale, and the former South Walton Community Yard Sale.

The market/sale will have the following categories and will be laid out in that manner:

- 1) Fine art, handcrafted and handmade
- 2) Market/wholesale (select number of vendors)
- 3) Food/concession sales

It is our hope to combine all aspects to be able to appeal to all markets and event attendees. A person can pick up a vintage lamp, and go to the next section and choose a dazzling handcrafted necklace, or a piece of handmade furniture to sit that vintage lamp.

The latest event to be added to the roster for the 2016 Market Days of South Walton, is the MDSW Antique & Classic Car Show, taking place the Saturday of the market weekend. There will be several categories and divisions for autos. Applications will be able to be downloaded off the Hilltop Production Events.
